On Tuesday, August 1, 2006, the Board of Supervisors approved a reward offer of $5,000 in return for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the murder of Cedric Hurd. The reward offer, which expired on April 22, 2008, was last extended on October 23, 2007 when the amount was increased to $10,000.

On December 18, 2001, at approximately 9:15 A.M., Cedric Hurd went to visit his 3-year old daughter. He was shot several times in front of his daughter's home, located in the 10900 block of Hobart Boulevard in Los Angeles.

The suspects are two black males, approximately 18 to 20 years of age (now approximately 27 to 30 years of age), and were last seen eastbound on West 109th Place in a large black sedan. The Detective working on the case is requesting that the reward be re-established.
